The Mountaintop, with Samuel L. Jackson and Angela Bassett

Extends Broadway Run

Taking place on April 3, 1968, The Mountaintop, press notes state, is a "gripping re-imagining of events the night before the assassination of civil rights leader Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. After delivering his legendary 'I've Been to the Mountaintop' speech, an exhausted Dr. King retires to his room at the Lorraine Motel in Memphis while a storm rages outside. When a mysterious young woman delivers room service, King is forced to confront his past, as well as his legacy to his people."
